Dates: May 31-June 2, 2019

Time: 9 am – 4 pm (times may vary with daily schedule)

Location: Kalispell and surrounding area – students will be provided with directions

This workshop is an opportunity to study with members from the Plein Air Painters of America. The three day class will start with an all day lecture by six of the members, followed by two days of painting and teaching in the field. The instructors will demo on both field days and also help the students as they work on their own paintings. Each instructor will aid the students with their own take on what they should consider, as well as help them with questions that may arise. Students will have the opportunity to receive varying feedback from some of the countrys' finest outdoor painters.

Cost: $550.00 (10% discount for Museum Members) Students are expected to provide their own materials, a supply list will be provided.
